Hello!

I'm Amy, a fun, creative photographer and filmmaker in Manchester covering the whole of the North West and Cheshire, with the odd trip up and down the country and abroad too!

I live in with my husband, our dog Pippa and our 2 cats, Lulu and Bella - you could say it's a mad house at times!

I am a ginger haired, friendly photographer who loves romance, chocolate and all things crafty! I was always a huge geek in school and not much has changed since as I adore history and documentaries and learning new things!

My dream is to own a character semi detached victorian house, travel the world, help others and grow old gracefully!

I love meeting new people, making friends and this job definitely allows me to do just that! It's why I ADORE it so much!

I hope to meet you very soon to have some great laughs and capture the best day you will ever have in your life.

Capturing the special moments from your pre-wedding session is almost as important as the big day itself!

Not only is it a great opportunity to have some gorgeous, relaxed shots taken of you as a couple to celebrate your engagement but many use the photos for their save the dates, invites and wedding thank you cards. It's also a fantastic time to show off that ring!

We will work together to choose a location that is not only beautiful but will make for the best shots too.

They're a good way for you both to get used to the camera and get to know me as well and how I work. I love taking natural, unposed shots that show off you as a couple and a pre-wedding session allows you to have a little glimpse into what it will be like having photos taken on the big day!

Tips & Tricks from real brides!

1

Relax! I know it's easier said than done but the most gorgeous photos come from you both being relaxed and happy. Don't be afraid to show emotion either it's your wedding day, you should be smiling and laughing!

2

Don't stress! Try not to stress over the small things, enjoy it! Remember it is about the two of you and what you want on your BIG day! Your friends and family are there to see you both tie the knot!

3

Enjoy every second of the day! It goes so fast, so take it all in and the best part is you can spend some alone time when you have your couples portraits together!

4

Take your time planning, keep yourselves in mind. It's so easy to focus on keeping everyone else happy, but at the end of the day, it's your wedding so do what makes you happiest.

Testimonials

A wedding party, including bridesmaids in light blue dresses, the bride in a white gown, and the groom in a grey suit, are walking down a tree-lined street. A black car is parked on the left, and a white van is visible in the background. The scene is set in front of a two-story building with a sign that partially reads 'THE D...'. The sky is blue with some clouds.
